

Marble Arch Fish Hatchery

The Marble Arch Fish Hatchery is a unique facility in terms of the water quality used to cultivate our fish. All water supplied to the hatchery is sourced from the Cascade cave system and thus ensures that we have pristine water at an ideal constant water temperature throughout the year. The hatchery is proud of its disease free status and implements strict bio-security policies on its premises.

The Marble Arch Fish Hatchery is a unique facility in terms of the water quality used to cultivate our fish. All water supplied to the hatchery is sourced from the Cascade cave system and thus ensures that we have pristine water at an ideal constant water temperature throughout the year. The hatchery is proud of its disease free status and implements strict bio-security policies on its premises.